Practical writing

- Recommendations must be based on PICOs and be presented in tables. Background summarised. Recommendations must be graded.
- Use the same ref. manager system e.g Mendeley (mendeley.com)
- Font: calibri 12 - headings in bold. Consensus among groups.
- Guideline "Acute circulatory failure" by A. Perner as inspiration
- GradePro software (free) recommended by the SSAI Clinical Practice Committee. (www.gradeopro.org)

Overall time schedule

Each group send drafts to their respective SSAI guideline mentors:

- April 13, 2018: 1. draft to SSAI guideline mentor. Draft will be discussed in CPH in groups and i plenum
- Sept.14, 2018: 2. draft to SSAI guideline mentor.
- Nov. 15, 2018: final draft to SSAI guideline mentor (ready to be compiled).
- Dec 15, 2018: Collection of drafts. Team leader in group B+C+D send final draft to Team leader in group A for compiling.
- Jan 28-30, 2018: Helsinki. Presentation of Guideline.

How will this be a succes?

1. Designate a team leader
2. Make a detailed time schedule before you leave this castle (all groups).
3. Be a good team member - ALWAYS answer your colleagues email and do your part of the task
4. Find a platform (drop box, google, etc.) where you can store your documents and communicate

We are all busy - not doing your task makes the job harder for your colleagues!

To do - before you leave Wiks Castle

Teams:

- Make detailed time schedules
- Decide on a platform where you can store documents and how to communicate
- Consensus on:
  - Ref. manager system e.g Mendeley (mendeley.com)
  - Font: calibri 12 - headings in bold. Consensus among groups
  - If you will use GradePro software (free) recommended by the SSAI Clinical Practice Committee. (www.gradepro.org)

Team leader:

- Make sure all team members understand their task
- Make sure you have each others email
- Send detailed time schedule to SSAI guideline mentors.
