

08.30-09.00

Registration and Coffee

09.00-09.05

Welcome

Christer Carlsson, Director, Centre for Medical Simulation, SUS Malmö, Sweden

09.05-09.15

Introduction

Catharina Blixen-Finecke alt. Rita Jedlert
”Södra Regionvårdsnämnden”

Session I – Patient safety.

09.15-09.40

”See one, do one, teach one” – it is no good any more!

Elizabeth A. Hunt, Professor, Director, Johns Hopkins Medical Simulation Centre, Baltimore, USA

09.40-10.00

Safe drug therapy – theoretical explanations

Per Rosenberg, Professor of Anaesthesiology, Helsinki University, Finland

10.00-10.15

Safe drug therapy – training and simulation

Cecilia Linderöth, Clinical educator, Practicum, SUS Lund, Sweden

10.15-10.30

Deficient stereovision: Impact on ophthalmic surgery

Madeleine Selvander, Assistant Professor, Department of Ophthalmologie, SUS Malmö, Sweden

10.30-11.00

Coffee and visit to exhibitions

Session II – Assessment/Evaluation

11.00-11.30

Assessment of professionals in medicine

Rhona Flin, Professor of Applied Psychology, Industrial Psychology Research Centre, University of Aberdeen, UK

11.30-11.45

Validation of a behavioural marker system to local context.

Lene Spanager, Ph.d student, Danish Institute for Medical Simulation, Herlev Hospital, Denmark

- 11.45-12.00 Objective structured assessment of technical skills in vacuum extractions.
Mathilde Maagaard PhD-student, Department of Obstetrics, Juliana Marie Centre, Rigshospitalet, Copenhagen, Denmark
- 12.00-12.15 Simulation and training: What and why should we evaluate?
Cecilia Holm, M. Ed., Educationalist, Centre for Medical Simulation, SUS Malmö, Sweden
- 12.15-13.00 Lunch and visit to exhibition
- Session III – Paediatrics
- 13.00-13.45 Paediatric emergency training
Elisabeth A. Hunt Professor, Director, Johns Hopkins Medical Simulation Centre, Baltimore, USA
- 13.45-14.00 Paediatric endocrine diseases – simulated education/training
Cecilia Andersson, Assistant Professor, Department of Paediatrics, SUS Malmö, Sweden
Johan Svensson, Associate Professor, Department of Paediatrics, SUS Malmö, Sweden
- 14.00-14.15 Paediatric videobased teaching material
Michelle Malon, Paediatric Clinic, Copenhagen University Hospital, Rigshospitalet, Denmark
- 14.15-15.00 Coffee and visit to exhibits
- Session IV – Communication skills
- 15.00-15.45 Effective Feedback. Closing the performance gap
Robert Simon, Ed.D, Instructor, Harvard Medical School and Education Director, Centre for Medical Simulation, Boston, USA
- 15.45-16.00 Preparing future doctors for communication challenges with today's patient
Birgitte Dahl Pedersen, Psychologist, Centre for Clinical Education, Rigshospital, Copenhagen, Denmark
- 16.00-16.15 The value of patient teachers
Ann-Helen Henriksen, Specialkonsult, Centre for Clinical Education, Rigshospital, Copenhagen, Denmark
- 16.15-17.00 Intercultural communication in health care
Nataliya Berbyuk Lindström, Ph:D., Program Director "Master in Communication", Department of Applied Information Technology, Chalmers & University of Gothenburg, Gothenburg, Sweden
- 17.00 Presentation of the new skill- and simulation centre in Lund/Malmö. Introduction of new leadership organization.
Summation of the day
Farewell
Annika Håkansson, Division Director, Assoc. Professor, SUS Lund/Malmö, Sweden